It's time to start planning your participation in the Premiere Hip Hop Festival. Scribble Jam, an annual showcase and competition, takes place every August in Cincinnati, Ohio attracting heads, honeys and steadfast performers from across the United States and abroad. It is a never ending quest to celebrate the elements that contribute to Hip Hop and it's first cousin, urban culture including B-Boys/Girls, MC's, DJ's and Graff Writers. The Jam features all aspects of the Hip Hop lifestyle from the music that represents it and the environment it fosters to the raw talent it inspires and the fashion that spawns from it. This years Scribble Jam will take place on OCTOBER 23-26, 2008.

This Four day event in its 13th year continues to increase its following by providing young artists a chance to showcase their skills in a variety of forums, both formal and informal, in competition and exhibition setting.

It offers both established and up and coming companies a valuable direct marketing opportunity. Scribble Jam can serve as your vehicle to this ever-growing populace of highly individualistic pioneers in the field of music and style. There is nothing better than having direct contact with a consumer so they can see, feel, hear and taste your product. At Scribble Jam 2008 your company will reach thousands of trendsetting consumers face to face in a festival setting that they will not forget.

Please review Scribble Jams past attendance numbers and demographics, then send in this form to us to reserve your booth space. Space is LIMITED . . . So don't sleep.
